Byerwen Mine

The Queensland Government is forcing Byerwen Mine workers out of their onsite mining camp and making them move to the tiny town of Glenden...up to an hour away by bus!

This decision will impact the wellbeing of up to 800 regional workers and put another multi-billion-dollar mine project at risk.

Will your mine camp be the next to be shut down?

THE GOVERNMENT TOLD US WHERE TO GO!

Help protect mine workers' rights!
